

53° CONGRESSO NAZIONALE

DELLA SOCIETÀ ITALIANA DI MICROBIOLOGIA SIM

19-22 SETTEMBRE 2025

UNIVERSITÀ DI CATANIA

MONASTERO DEI BENEDETTINI

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great enthusiasm that I invite you to attend the 53° Congress of the Italian Society of Microbiology, which will take place from September 19 to 22, 2025, in the splendid setting of the University of Catania – Monastery of the Benedictines, on the Montevergine hill, the original nucleus of the city, in the heart of the historic center.

The SIM 2025 Congress represents a valuable opportunity to meet again, share knowledge, and shape the future of microbiology. Our discipline thrives on connections, exchanges, and ideas that intertwine and evolve into new perspectives. For this reason, beyond scientific updates, this Congress will be a space for discussion, growth, and inspiration.

I have chosen Catania not only for its academic prestige but also because it perfectly embodies the spirit of science: a vibrant, dynamic, and constantly evolving city, much like our field. Walking through its streets, immersing ourselves in the charm of Sicilian Baroque architecture, and being captivated by the breathtaking view of Mount Etna on the horizon will provide the perfect backdrop for tackling the future challenges of our discipline.

In addition to the topics that have always been at the core of SIM, this year's scientific program expands to include key themes, ranging from microbiology fundamentals to new therapeutic and diagnostic frontiers. The main sessions and central round tables will focus on six major current topics:

- Evolution and clonal diversity in microorganisms
- Emerging topics in the pathophysiology of infectious diseases
- Enteric pathogens: new challenges and perspectives
- Antibiotic resistance: innovative strategies to combat it
- Transplants and infectious diseases: current status and future perspectives
- Human microbiota: beyond the gut

In addition to these, the Congress will provide further opportunities to explore two equally crucial topics: "The future of diagnostics in infectious diseases" and "New resistance mechanisms", which will be developed through selected contributions.

Over four days, we will engage in in-depth scientific discussions, stimulating debates, and valuable networking opportunities. We will have the privilege of learning from top experts and contributing to the advancement of our field together.

Dynamic discussion sessions, including oral presentations, flash communications, round tables, and workshops, will enrich the program. These interactive spaces will allow participants to exchange experiences and explore cutting-edge topics in depth.

Additionally, the active involvement of prominent companies in microbiology and diagnostics will enhance the event's value, as they present their latest technological innovations, connecting research with real-world applications.

I eagerly anticipate welcoming you to Catania for an experience that transcends science: four days filled with discussion, inspiration, and networking in a city known for embracing its guests with the warmth and energy of grand occasions.

SIM president

Prof.ssa Stefania Stefani

Venue: University of Catania

Catania, founded in 729 BC by Greek colonists from Naxos, became one of ancient Sicily's major cities.

Catania was an important Roman and Byzantine city until 900 AD, when it was conquered by the Arabs and later by the Normans.

Under the Aragonese dynasty, it became the capital of the Kingdom of Sicily. Since 1434, by order of Alfonso V, it has been home to the oldest university on the island.

Today, Catania enchants visitors with its Baroque historic center, recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site, and its rich Liberty-style architectural and cultural heritage, which earned it the Best Liberty City award from the National Association Italy Liberty in 2016. Its ancient churches and lively squares harmoniously blend with modernity, creating a perfect balance between the charm of a past that still lives on its streets and buildings.

CONTRIBUTIONS OF HOSPITALITY

This form of sponsorship is reserved for biomedical companies that adhere to the guidelines set forth by the AIFA Ethical Code and Confindustria Medical Devices.

For the correct interpretation of this form of sponsorship, it is specified that:

- In agreement with Assobiomedica, the reference HCO (HealthCare Organization) is the provider of the event itself, and therefore, for this congress, it is TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL in its role as the Organizing Secretariat of the Congress. Hence, it will be the sole recipient of this type of Educational grant;
- TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL will select the names of the participants who will benefit from the hospitality contribution based on the general criteria defined with the scientific officer;
- The sponsor will have the opportunity to suggest additional selection policy to TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL, which will assess their applicability;
- TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL will under no circumstances (even after the event) disclose the names of the selected participants to the sponsor;
- Similarly, TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL will not be able to disclose to the selected participants (even after the event) the name of the company that funded their attendance at the congress;
- The relationship between the company and TRIUMPH GROUP INTERNATIONAL will be defined through a formal sponsorship agreement in accordance with the applicable regulations.
